

ABOUT US

swepta.com is the leading provider for data for direct marketing campaigns. swepta.com is a must include in any online or integrated marketing campaign. We believe that reaching your audience, whether it numbers in the tens or millions, should be as simple as sending a single email message. Because we stay on the forefront of list management technology, it is that simple. We ensure our clients' success by allowing them to engage in highly targeted campaigns. We deal only in permission based lists and believe that excellent technology and data we have delivers superior results. Above all we believe in a customer service that is enthusiastic, professional and result oriented.
